Dear Vice-President Dombrovskis

Thank you once again for agreeing so readily to contribute to our 10th anniversary publication on the future of Europe's capital markets. Since we are getting closer to our publication date, I thought I would just follow up to let you know we have an impressive list of contributors (see attached), all of whom will no doubt have strong and distinctive things to say. But as part of the editorial process we'd like to try to minimise duplication or overlap between the different contributions.

It would be great if you could have someone from your office either give us a very brief summary of your key points, or ask someone to arrange to speak with [REDACTED] (copied). I would also like to take this opportunity to confirm the final submission date is Friday 28th June.

In addition, it would be helpful if your office could send us a copy of your official biography and a headshot we can give to our designers as they begin work on the layout.

Once again, we really appreciate your taking the time and effort to participate in what I feel sure will be an important and timely publication.

Kind regards.
