

Dutch Produce Association, 24/1/2020

DPA informed about its structure. They support the Green Deal but point at some sensitivities. For example, packaging of fruits and vegetables reduces food waste. DPA is developing paper based alternatives and encourages supermarkets to use a single size containers.

DPA also supported focusing on IPM. They also argued that imported produce should be treated with European PPPs. Finally they argued that organic rules should be better harmonised.