Dear Riccardo,

I hope this note finds you well.

EY recently developed an effective plastic deposit return system, in the Netherlands, for both large and small PET bottles, to be implemented by 2021.

We would be honored to share our experience and learnings from this project with you, in case you would find it useful.

My colleagues, and myself would welcome the opportunity to meet you to discuss the future European plastics strategy.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kind Regards,
