[REDACTED]

Thank you for your mail.

First of all, JAMA is keeping a good relationship with Mr Petriccione for long years since he worked for chief negotiator on EU-Japan EPA at DG Trade. JAMA had been many opportunities to meet with him ever before.

Therefore I believe that Mr Petriccione has well known about JAMA and Japan.

We do not intend to discuss in detail technical issues and our idea is to have a general talks. We have three basic points which we wish to exchange of views.

1. Prospect of European [REDACTED] in particular section [REDACTED] Accelerating the shift to sustainable and [REDACTED]
  - "the legislation on [REDACTED]
  - [REDACTED]
  - "Commission proposal on stringent [REDACTED] for [REDACTED] and others.
2. Keeping a good communication and cooperation among Commission and JAMA in term of regulatory cooperation.
3. Observation on one year anniversary of [REDACTED] in particular [REDACTED] [REDACTED] In general.

I hope above explanation is useful for your clarification.

If you need further information or clarification, please let me know.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Best regards,

In order to better prepare and focus the meeting scheduled for the 18/2, may I kindly ask some clarifications about the purpose of the meeting?

In particular I would like to ask whether you could elaborate more on the phrase below:

"We JAMA is interested to exchange of views on mainly EU sustainable [redacted] in European [redacted] and [redacted]"

Thank you very much in advance for a feedback at your earliest convenience.
