Dear [REDACTED]

Apologies for a delayed reply.

I have just heard from our board members and January 31 would work best for us, if this slot is still available.

Our delegation would be composed of :

- [REDACTED], President and co-Founder of Cheyne Capital, Member of AIMA Council and Chair of the Alternative Credit Council
- [REDACTED], Managing Director, Global head of Asset Management Regulation, AIMA
- Myself

I am still awaiting for the answer of another AIMA board member and will get back to you as soon as I can to confirm his presence, if it is ok with you.

I'll also come back to you with a proposed agenda, although we are very happy to discuss any topics [REDACTED] would like to address.

Thank you for your help,

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [Redacted],

Thank you for your e-mail from the 16 of December addressed to Executive Vice-president Dombrovskis and for the meeting request with [Redacted] CEO of AIMA.

While Mr Dombrovskis appreciated the invitation very much, due to travel arrangement already foreseen in his agenda, making him impossible to accept your request.

However, if wished, I could contact colleagues from DG FISMA in order to facility the meeting with them.

I remain at your disposal for any additional questions.

Best regards,

Dear Andrea,

I hope this finds you well and that you had a relaxing break. All my best wishes for the new year.

I was wondering if you heard anything in relation to our request for a meeting with Commissioner Dombrovskis around January 23rd, before I reach out to his/her assistant to follow up on our letter (re-attached for ease of reference) ?

Kind regards,

Dear Andrea,

I hope you are well since we last met.

This email to flag a letter we have just sent to Mr Dombrovskis (attached) requesting a meeting around the 23 January in Brussels.

Our CEO and some of AIMA Board Members will be in Brussels at that period and we wanted to seize this opportunity to discuss the new European cycle with Mr Dombrovskis and yourself or your colleagues.

Very happy to answer any questions you might have or provide more details.

Kind regards,
