Dear Executive Vice President Vestager,

On behalf of Facebook, please accept our best wishes for the New Year. We look forward to working closely and constructively with you throughout your mandate.

[REDACTED], is planning to be in Brussels on 17 February. If your agenda allows, he hopes to meet you personally on this occasion.

[REDACTED] is keen to share how Facebook will approach the decade ahead, as well as where and what regulation of the internet we believe is needed. He would be keen to hear your thoughts on this in return. This includes topics of mutual interest such as artificial intelligence, the upcoming Digital Services Act and more.

We hope a meeting will be possible. My team will take the liberty of following up with your office in the coming days. I thank you for your time and consideration.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
