Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to participate in the feedback mechanism on the pharmaceutical strategy roadmap. Indeed the text reply is limited in characters but you should be able to attach a position paper as well.

I hope this helps.

Kind regards,

Subject: Pharmaceutical Roadmap consultation - Question

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope this message finds you well and healthy.

I'm reaching out for a quick question regarding the public consultation just started in relation with the Pharmaceutical Strategy Roadmap. The online format of the response seems to indicate that any contribution is limited to 4000 characters. Given that this is rather short, I wanted to check with you whether it is possible to provide a slightly longer contribution in the form of an attachment.

Sorry to bother you with such mundane question, but I would like to make sure that our contribution follows the expected format.

Many thanks in advance and wishing you all the best,

[REDACTED]
