Hi [REDACTED] thanks for your confirmation. Now noted in the diary. In terms of platform, we work with Skype for Business and Webex. Would either of these work for you? Also, maybe you could send my colleague [REDACTED] in copy, the topics that will be raised at the meeting.
Kind regards.

Dear [REDACTED]

Many thanks for your response and of course no problem
We would happily go for Wednesday 17 February at 16h00 then! Will you send an invitation? I will check internally still who would participate in the meeting from our side and let you know next week, also regarding a list of topics.
Many thanks and best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope this email finds you well!

Sorry to reach out to you again regarding this meeting but would you maybe have any news on this?

Many thanks and best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

First of all, let me wish you all the best for the new year!

I wanted to briefly follow up on my email below regarding a meeting between Commissioner McGuinness and Mr Beyrer, DG of BusinessEurope.

Many thanks and best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Please allow me to follow up on Mr Beyrer's letter to Commissioner McGuinness and the request for a meeting to discuss BusinessEurope's priorities in the portfolio under her responsibility. Would it maybe be possible to arrange a virtual meeting in the second half of January?

I remain at your disposal to look for a suitable date – also on the phone if you prefer to do in “real-time”

Many thanks and best regards,
