Participating organisation(s) & representative(s)

-- Association for Financial Markets in Europe (TRN: 65110063986-76) Participant, Requester,

Main issues discussed

I participated as speaker in the AFME-DIGITAL EUROPE roundtable on DORA.

The panel was moderated by [redacted] (Digital Europe) and composed by MEP Billy Kelleher, MEP Alfred Sant, [redacted] (German Federal Ministry of Finance), [redacted] (Google Cloud), [redacted] (JP Morgan), MEP Frances Fitzgerald, [redacted] (Central Bank of Portugal), [redacted] (Amazon Web Services) [redacted] (Deutsche Bank) and myself.

The main issues addressed during the presentations and discussions were focused on the overview and status of the DORA proposal in the European Parliament, on how can we guarantee technological neutrality and proportionality in the new framework, the importance of a risk-based approach, the benefits of harmonizing incident reporting, some key consideration for digital operational resilience testing, the interplay with the other EU regulatory requirements (e.g. NIS 2 Directive, the EBA guidelines on outsourcing), the new oversight regime and how it can give extra assurances for companies to embrace digital technology, the designation of critical third parties, oversight structure and the role of ESAs, etc.
