Dear [REDACTED],

Mrs Gauer asked me to thank you for your email.
Unfortunately due to a very busy agenda she will not be able to meet AmCham EU.

However, I'm pleased to inform you that [REDACTED], has kindly agreed to take it over and schedule a meeting with you.
Could you please contact [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] assistant [REDACTED] for the practical arrangements?

I remain at your disposal for any further information you may require
Kind regards
[REDACTED]

Subject: AmCham EU meeting request - week starting 2 November 2020

Dear Ms Gauer,

I hope you are well.

On behalf of the American Chamber of Commerce to the EU (AmCham EU), I would like to request a virtual meeting with you during the week starting on Monday, 2 November 2020, ideally. We can be flexible in terms of dates/timings and would be happy to meet with you virtually when most suitable to your schedule.

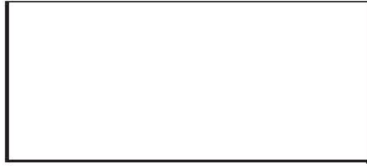

We would very much welcome the opportunity to present to you our most recent recovery paper: "Investing in Europe's recovery: forging the future". Our paper outlines our contribution in the areas of green deal, digital, healthcare, trade, and on the completion of the Single Market. As the US business community committed to and invested in Europe, we stand ready to contribute to Europe's recovery.

At the meeting, two members from our Policy Group leadership will be present, our Policy Director and myself. I will share with you the final attendance list in advance.

As you may know, AmCham EU speaks for American companies committed to Europe on trade, investment and competitiveness issues. It aims to ensure a growth-orientated business and investment climate in Europe. AmCham EU facilitates the resolution of transatlantic issues that impact business and plays a role in creating a better understanding of EU and US positions on business matters. Aggregate US investment in Europe totalled more than €3 trillion in 2019, directly supports more than 4.9 million jobs in Europe, and generates billions of euros annually in income, trade and research and development.

We look forward to this opportunity to meet with you. In the meantime, I remain at your disposal should have any questions.

Kind regards,

American Chamber of Commerce to the EU
