Dear [REDACTED],

As promised, please find attached some examples of questions that we might want to explore with the Commissioner next week.

I hope this helps understand the scope and the spirit of our main concerns, and helps your team prepare in advance.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

As promised, I am sending you the [REDACTED] on March 24 (Meeting ID: [REDACTED]; Passcode: [REDACTED]). As agreed, we will be looking forward to welcome the Commissioner and her delegation from 11.45am.

FYI, the short briefing shared with the Euroboard members reads like this:

Smart and Sustainable Mobility Strategy: making the transport sector fit for a clean and digital economy

Guest Speaker: [REDACTED]

In December 2020, the European Commission presented its Smart and Sustainable Mobility Strategy, its vision on how the EL mobility further sustainable and in line with the ambitious objectives set in the European Green Deal.

FIA Region I reacted to the Strategy, noting that, to be truly sustainable, its implementation must remain open to a wide appr guarantees fair and effective access to in-vehicle data for mobility service providers.

In regards to the latter, on February 5, FIA Region I responded to the Commission's public consultation, noting that, while it will be necessary, FIA Region I believes that the measures taken towards these objectives must be predictable and planna powertrains, a well-to-wheel approach must be taken, as, only by doing so, we will be able to avoid simply shifting the emiss

I should be able to share with you a list of potential questions for the Commissioner by mid next week.

Thanks in advance, and kind regards!

Dear [REDACTED],

Thanks for your message , and indeed for the good news. I am glad to read that the format suits the Commissioner well, and I will be sending you both our internal briefing and a few indicative questions in advance of the meeting. I will also share the connection details with you as soon as possible.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you very much.

The agenda and format work perfectly on our side. Just, if by any chance you have the questions beforehand, please don't hesitate to share them with us.

Finally, if you could share the briefing it would be very helpful.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Please see attached the agenda for our Euroboard meeting.

In what regards the participation of Commissioner Valean, as I mentioned last week, I would suggest starting with a brief introduction by the Commissioner around the motto Smart and Sustainable Mobility Strategy: making the transport sector fit for a clean and digital economy. This would then be followed by a quick reaction by our [REDACTED], and a session of Q&A with the rest of the participants, moderated by our [REDACTED]. The discussion should be quite “high-level”, so the Commissioner does not need to prepare or bother too much about the details.

Once I get confirmation of the Commissioner’s agreement to this format, I can share with you the short briefing that I will prepare for the members of the Euroboard.

Looking forward to hearing further from you, I send my best regards.

Dear [REDACTED],

Thanks for your message. I am afraid that, officially, I will only have the final version of the agenda for the Euroboard meeting in one week; but I promise to send you something close to the final version by the end of this week.

In what regards the participation of Commissioner Valean though, we would suggest starting with a brief introduction by the Commissioner around the motto Smart and Sustainable Mobility Strategy: making the transport sector fit for a clean and digital economy. This would then be followed by a quick reaction by our [REDACTED], and a session of Q&A with the rest of the participants.

Let me know what you think.

Dear [REDACTED],

Thanks again for your prompt reply, and for your openness; we appreciate the need to be careful, and accept the timeslot that you suggest: 11.45-12.30 it is!

I will be in touch with further details soon.

Bom dia [REDACTED],

On our side, we would preferably book 11h45 to 12h30. Indeed, we are only informed of the subjects of the College meetings shortly before it happens and, it might be that a transport subjects "pops in" making it impossible for our Commissioner to leave earlier. Sorry if we are being extra careful but, we would like to avoid a last minute cancelation.

Would it be ok for you?

Thank you very much for your understanding.

Dear [REDACTED],

These are great news! Thanks a lot for letting me know!

If you and the Commissioner agree, we could plan her participation to start at 11.30 (for one hour, until 12.30).

Once you confirm, I will send you all further details regarding the meeting and Commissioner Valean's participation.

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope that this message finds you and your colleagues in good shape and positive mood, despite the circumstances in which we are still living in.

I am reaching out to you today to ask, since Commissioner Vaele had to cancel her participation at the last minute in November, whether it would be possible to consider her participation at the next meeting of our Euroboard, which will take place on March 24.

Looking forward to receiving your reply, I send my kindest regards!

Dear [REDACTED],

I am very sorry to get back at you with a bad news but, unfortunately, due to an unexpected event, our Commissioner will not be able to attend your event in the end.

We could propose a video message instead if this options is acceptable on your side.

Again apologies and please don't hesitate to contact if needed,

Dear [REDACTED],

Following-up on our telephone chat yesterday, and as promised, please find attached the complete agenda for our Euroboard meeting on November 5.

As agreed, we will be looking forward to welcoming the Commissioner at 11am. The Commissioner and her team will be able to join the Zoom Meeting by using this [REDACTED]. (Meeting ID: [REDACTED]; Passcode: [REDACTED]). You can also join by phone (find your local number [REDACTED]), or by Skype for Business [REDACTED]

If you agree, our [REDACTED] will start by welcoming the Commissioner and introducing her to the participants; then, he will invite her to take the floor and tell the participants about the first (almost) year of work of this College of Commissioners, and about her objectives, initiatives and plans in the field of transport and mobility.

I suggest that the Commissioner tries to limit her intervention to up to 15 minutes, so that we can have time for an interactive discussion with the rest of the participants. The first one to intervene after the Commissioner, will probably be the [REDACTED], who, as you know, is also the [REDACTED] for [REDACTED]. A few other participants – Presidents and CEOs of our main Clubs – will be given the floor for short comments or questions, and then the Commissioner will be invited to react to them. With some short concluding remarks by our [REDACTED], we will close the discussion, and thank the Commissioner for her participation.

All this will be done within the 60-minutes that we had previously agreed upon.

Please let me know whether you need anything else from my side.

Thanks in advance, and kind regards!

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you very much for your email and for letting us choose the timeslot of our Commissioner's participation. On our side, if possible, 11:00, would be perfect.

Also, can I ask you for the agenda of the board meeting?

Thank you very much in advance and don't hesitate to contact if needed,

Kind regards,

European Commission

We would like to highlight that for reasons of public transparency, Commissioners and their Cabinets only meet organisations or self-employed individuals that are registered in the EU's Transparency Register (see here: <http://ec.europa.eu/transparencyregister>). I would invite you to register if you have not yet done so, and send us your registration number if you wish to request a meeting.

Dear [REDACTED],

I hereby confirm that we have decided to organise our Euroboard meeting exclusively online, among others to accommodate the Commissioner's constraints. The meeting will take place between 10am and 4pm; in order for us to be able to organise things, and because we would like to offer total flexibility to Commissioner Valean, could you please let me know what time would suit the Commissioner best? I remind you that we would be looking for a one-hour time slot.

Thanks in advance, and kind regards.

Dear [REDACTED],

Many thanks for the prompt and kind reply.

We totally understand the constraints of the Commissioner regarding physical meetings, and will try to adapt to them. I will confirm, within the next couple of weeks, whether we can host the Commissioner online and which format we could propose to her.

Meanwhile, it would help me if you could let me know a couple of one-hour slots when the Commissioner would be available on the 5th of November.

Melhores cumprimentos,

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope you have enjoyed nice summer holidays, and I wish you all the best for the autumn period.

I wanted to touch base regarding the idea that has been flying about Commissioner Valean participating in our Board meeting as a guest speaker. As a reminder, the meeting is planned for November 5.

I would like to ask, in regards to the current sanitary conditions and internal rules for meetings, whether this is something that would be at all possible and, if yes, in which conditions (physical meeting? Webconference?).

When we last talk about it (June), the Commissioner seemed positive about the idea, but everything was very uncertain due to the sanitary conditions and the evolution of it; but now we need to start making plans and, therefore, I would appreciate if you already have more clarity regarding this project.

Thanks in advance, and kind regards.
