Dear [REDACTED],

Further to your telephone call this afternoon I can confirm a meeting with [REDACTED] on 10th April, but 9.30 would be more convenient if OK with you. [REDACTED] prefers that the meeting takes place here in [REDACTED] office.

I would be grateful if you could confirm, and also complete and return to me the attached form in order that I create an e-pass.

I would also need Samsung's transparency register number.

Many thanks

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Many thanks – 4,5,8 or 10 April would suit on our side, whatever is best for [REDACTED].

Best regards, [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email. [REDACTED] would be pleased to meet with you.

I would therefore be grateful if you could put me in touch with your assistant so that we can compare agendas and find a mutually convenient moment.

Kind regards

Dear [redacted],

It was very good to meet you today and please thank Commissioner Moedas for his very interesting take on European R&D needs and on EU affairs more generally.

As mentioned, we are very much committed to development and production of next-generation batteries and would appreciate a discussion with the Cabinet about how to sequence contacts with the Commission with a view to achieving optimal outcomes, not least for European battery policy.

It would be very helpful if your office could indicate suitable date(s) when we could come and speak to the Cabinet about our plans.

With thanks and best regards, [redacted]
