Many thanks [REDACTED] I've read the document. To be focused in our discussion tomorrow I would suggest to go back to the digital compass (section 6, pages 18-20) and try to identify what is the delta/ what's missing in our existing strategy

Speak tomorrow. Best,

Dear [REDACTED],

Many thanks for the alternative slots, the first one, 11:00 – 12:00, works very well.

Are you going to circulate a link or would you prefer me to do so?

Have a nice day too, thank you.

Kind regards,

Dear Mr. Cainzos,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am contacting you with regards to the tech compact work that it's been done at ECFR, as you might already be aware. ECFR is now working on a draft paper which aims to highlight the importance of tech diplomacy at EU level, and your input would be very valuable. I was wondering whether you might be available for a virtual meeting with ECFR's colleagues to further discuss the project on tech diplomacy?

Joining the call would be:

Thank you in advanced,
