

EUROPEAN COMMISSION
DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR ENERGY

Directorate A – Energy Policy: Strategy and Coordination
A.1 – Interinstitutional and Member States

Brussels, 22 March 2022
ENER/A1

MISSION REPORT

Participant:	The Commission: ENER DG Ditte Juul Jørgensen, accompanied by her Assistant, [REDACTED], [REDACTED], the Country Coordinator for Italy in DG ENER, [REDACTED], and a colleague representing the Commission Delegation in Rome, [REDACTED]. Meetings with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Italian Minister of Ecological Transition, Roberto Cingolani,- The representatives of the Energy Department at the Ministry of Ecological Transition (previously Ministry of Economic Development): [REDACTED], DG for markets, nuclear energy, and energy efficiency; [REDACTED], DG energy incentives; [REDACTED], representing DG Infrastructures and Security- ENI: Lapo Pistelli, Director Public Affairs - Rome, and [REDACTED], Head of European Government Affairs – Brussels Office- Snam: Marco Alverà, CEO, [REDACTED], Group Head of European Affairs and Public Affairs for Energy at SNAM, and [REDACTED], Executive Vice President of Institutional Affairs, ESG and Sustainability- Edison: Simone Nisi, Director for Institutional Affairs - Rome, [REDACTED], Head of Institutional Affairs - Brussels (via conference call), and representative from IGI Poseidon
Meeting	Mission to Rome
Place	Rome, different venues
Date	16 March 2022
Key points	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Fit for 55 negotiations: latest developments and Italian contribution to renewables and energy efficiency targets (included issues related to biomethane and hydrogen)- Diversification of gas supply routes, potential of increased supply- Storage regulation- New oil and gas explorations (PiTESAI)- Energy prices and Italian proposal for an EU gas price cap- Outreach to African neighbourhood
cc:	/