Dear Mr Denis,

I hope you and your colleagues are safe and doing well. These last few months have been challenging around the globe, and we are impressed by the remarkable coordination effort across the European Commission to address the economic crisis and prepare the post-Covid recovery. DORA regulation and the Digital Finance Package are one of the tools to address these issues, and we would like to congratulate you for your relentless work, particularly in these disruptive times.

I am writing to request a meeting [REDACTED]
