Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email. Mr Berrigan would be delighted to meet your [REDACTED] on Wednesday 27th October at 17.30 hrs.

I would be grateful if [REDACTED] could provide his vaccination certificate on arrival and wear a mask at all times (unless he is exempt from wearing a mask). Mr Berrigan can have a maximum of two guests in his office.

My colleague [REDACTED] in copy will be in touch to arrange a V-pass.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any further assistance.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Thanks again for your help in scheduling the meeting between Ms. Jour-Schroeder and [REDACTED]. This is highly appreciated.

As we are working on meetings for Commerzbank board members I should mention that our [REDACTED] will be in town end-October. If I remember correctly Sean met [REDACTED] in January 2020 to discuss the finalization of Basel and internal models. Well, [REDACTED] would be excited to follow-up on this conversation, perhaps adding AML/CTF to the range of topics.

[REDACTED] will be available for a meeting with Sean on October 27 (12 noon – 4pm; or 5.30pm) or in the morning of October 28.

We look forward to receiving your suggestions.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

We highly appreciate your cooperation and support. September 20, 16.45 – 17.30 works perfectly. I am happy to confirm the meeting with Ms. Jour-Schroeder from our end.

I understand that Mr. [REDACTED] can be joined by one further Commerzbank employee (only). I will revert shortly with the name of the second participant.

Enjoy a lovely and relaxing weekend.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I am happy to confirm Ms Jour-Schroeder availability for a meeting with [REDACTED]. However, Monday 20 September seems also busy for her, but we can propose you two following slots for a meeting:

14h30-15h15
16h45-17h30

Would one of the slots above suit Mr [REDACTED]?

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for the swift response. We highly appreciate the preparedness of Sean for a meeting. Alas, [REDACTED] will be in town on Monday (9/20) only. Do you think Ms. Jour-Schroeder would be available to fill-in for Sean?

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

On behalf of Sean I would like to thank you for your e-mail and your meeting request which Sean is glad to accept. We can now again receive visitors however delegations are limited to 2 external people according to the current rules.

Monday 20 September is a very busy day in Sean's diary, he is in back-to-back meetings since 08h30 to 18h00. Would Tuesday 21 September suit [REDACTED]? We could propose the following slots: 09h, 12h00 or 16h30.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Subject: Meeting request [REDACTED] Commerzbank AG

Dear [REDACTED]

It has been a while. We hope you and the entire FISMA team made it safely through the Corona-age. And we hope you could enjoy a relaxing summer break.

Well, as most Corona restrictions have been lifted following yesterday's "rentrée" our new [REDACTED] is keen to travel to Brussels asap to introduce himself to the key players in the Brussels' arena. He is envisaging to be in town on September 20.

Query if Sean is receiving visitors in his office (again)? Would Sean be available for an introduction and a high-level exchange of views (current situation in the industry, digitization, sustainable finance, Basel etc.) either in the morning or in the late afternoon?

As usual your support in facilitating a meeting will be highly appreciated. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to ask.

Kind regards,
