Subject: FW: Invitation BusinessEurope - 12 May - Guest Speaker at the Energy and Climate Working Group

Dear [REDACTED], dear [REDACTED],

With this email, I would like to kindly follow up on the below invitation sent to Ms Chapuis to participate to BusinessEurope's Energy and Climate Working Group meeting to be held next week on Wednesday 12th May morning.

I tried to call you earlier to discuss this invitation and the availability of Ms Chapuis. As the date of the meeting is fast approaching, I was hoping you could get back to us soon. Indeed, we would like to share the agenda of the meeting with our members in advance and are waiting for Ms Chapuis' confirmation.

I thank you very much in advance for your time and consideration you will give to this request, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Subject: Invitation BusinessEurope - 12 May - Guest Speaker at the Energy and Climate Working Group

Dear Ms Chapuis,

I hope this e-mail finds you well.

I am contacting you today to kindly invite you to BusinessEurope's Energy and Climate Working Group as a guest speaker. As you may know, BusinessEurope, our national federations, and companies are following the evolution of the Fit-for-55 Package with great interest. We would be extremely grateful if in your presentation you could give us an insight on the state of play regarding some of the issues contained in the package, specifically the revisions of the ETS, the Renewable Energy Directive and the Energy Efficiency Directive.

Our virtual meeting will take place on the Monday, May 12, from 10:00h to 12:00h through MS Teams. Within that time span, we would welcome your presentation at any point that best suits your schedule. We usually ask our guest speakers to give a 15-20 min presentation, and then leave up to 45 min for our members to engage in a Q&A (one hour total). We would be very glad to count on your intervention and your expertise on these topics.

Thank you in advance for considering our request. Please don't hesitate to get in contact should you have any questions.

With kind regards,
