Dear [REDACTED],

many thanks to you and your team for setting up this call on Monday. We look forward to the discussion.

As promised, here are some topics that we would like to address during our call.

- Definition of a public service obligation in point 2.2
- Possibility to group cost-covering services and non-cost covering services in the public service contract
- Clarification of which modes of transport are meant to be comparable when analysing the existence of market failure and what is the reasoning behind this decision?

With that I wish you a nice weekend and speak to you on Monday.

Dear [REDACTED],

We understand your reasoning and preference for a bilateral call on the draft revision of the PSO guidelines. We would be delighted to organize this call on 7 February from 10:00 to 11:00 and will consult two of our experts to confirm their availability to attend the call.

We will share the list of discussion points that we would like to discuss as soon as possible.

If you agree, we can set up a Zoom meeting and send it to the participants calendars.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

We can propose to you a bilateral call on the draft revised PSO Guidelines on 7 February. Would a meeting from 10.00 to 11.00 be suitable for you? We would also appreciate if you could briefly indicate the subject areas of your questions. Thank you.

As I wrote earlier we appreciate the invitation to the SGI Europe's Task Force meeting on 23 February. However, for the reasons developed in my previous e-mail we'll not be able to attend. I hope you comprehend.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you very much for your prompt reply. We would be delighted to have a bilateral call with you regarding the Guidelines. Let us know, when would be the best time to schedule a meeting. On our side, we are very flexible.

We understand your concerns regarding the presentation of the Guidelines during the revision process, however, your or [REDACTED] participation at the SGI Europe's Task Force meeting could be an opportunity for your evaluation process to exchange with a wide variety of public transport providers from across Europe providing you with the needed background and detailed explanation of our position. Therefore, we would nonetheless invite you again to our online meeting on 23 February.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you very much for your mail you sent to [REDACTED] and the invitation to present and discuss the revised land PSO Guidelines at a meeting with the SGI Transport Task Force on 23.2.

However, as the text is currently in a consultation process and is very likely to be revised after the end of this process in mid-February we regret to say that we consider such a presentation at this stage of the process not opportune. However, we will be happy to make such a presentation to the SGI Transport Task Force after the adoption of the Guidelines in the course of 2022. We appreciate that SGI Europe intends to submit its observations on the draft revised PSO Guidelines before the end of the consultation process on 10.2.

If you see a need, we would be available for a bilateral call preferably before 10.2. to answer any questions that you might have on the draft text.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: Invite to the SGI Transport Task Force online meeting on 23 February (10:00-13:00)

Dear [REDACTED],

I am writing to you from SGI Europe to kindly invite you as guest speaker to the SGI Transport Task Force online meeting on 23 February 2022 from 10:00 to 13:00, to discuss the revision of the PSO Regulation guidelines.

SGI Europe, as a cross-sectoral organisation representing, amongst others, operators of public transport, has been asked to contribute to the consultations related to the non-paper revised interpretative guidelines. We will share with you our contribution before the end of the consultations on 10 February 2022.

This meeting could be an opportunity to have a constructive exchange of views with operators of public transport on the future developments of the revision of the PSO guidelines.

To that extent, we would be delighted welcome you at our Transport Task Force meeting to hold a 10-15 mins intervention including a Q&A session anytime between 10h30 and 13h00. We are still very flexible with the timings and we adjust the speaking slots according to our speakers schedules.

I attach our last Participant list from November 2021, to give you an idea of our membership in the Transport Task Force.

If you have any further questions or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] [\[REDACTED\]@sgieurope.org](mailto:[REDACTED]@sgieurope.org)) or [REDACTED] ([REDACTED] @sgieurope.org).

On behalf of [REDACTED], [REDACTED] for Sustainability Board.
