Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for this very swift confirmation, highly appreciated. The slot is booked in Werner's agenda.

Dear [REDACTED]

To ensure smooth access to our building I would need a few details (see table attached). Would you please provide them by Monday COB, at the very latest?

If you would like to have a parking spot at the Esplanade, I would also need the full name of the driver and his mobile number + a few car details (brand, model, colour, tag numbers).

Please note that for transparency purposes, this meeting will be published in the Transparency Register of the European Commission. Please make sure your organisation is duly registered. The Cabinet does not intend to communicate actively on the content of this meeting. However, in line with Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, minutes can be made accessible to the public upon request (without any disclosure of protected interests).

Should you have any question, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Hi Werner,

I hope this email finds you well; next week on 1st (as off noon) and 2nd March, [REDACTED], [REDACTED] will be in town, and I thought this would be a good occasion to discuss the status of the AI Act.

Would you be available for a meeting?
