Subject: Your application for access to documents – EASE 2023/2721

Dear Ms Da Silva,

I refer to your email application dated 5 May 2023, registered on the same date under the above mentioned EASE reference number, in which you make a request for access to documents under Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001¹ (‘Regulation 1049/2001’).

1. SCOPE OF YOUR REQUEST

In your request, you asked for access to:

‘[…] all documents—including but not limited to correspondence, emails, minutes, notes (hand written or electronic), audio or video recordings, verbatim reports, operational conclusions, lines to take, briefings, and presentations—related to the meeting on 08-09-2022 between Elina Melngaile and Google.’

We identified the following two documents as falling within the scope of your request:

- 02-Ares(2022)6516391 – Meeting with Google 08-09-2022 – Minutes.

2. ASSESSMENT AND CONCLUSIONS UNDER REGULATION 1049/2001

Having examined the requested documents under the applicable legal framework, I am pleased to grant you full access to identified document 2 and wide access to identified document 1, with only names and other personal data redacted. Hence, the main content of document 1 is accessible. Copies of both documents (document 1 in its redacted version) are enclosed to the present letter.

2.1. Applicable exception regarding document 1: Protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, in accordance with Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation 1049/2001

2.1.1. ‘Personal data’

We disclose document 1 partially, as certain personal data therein must be redacted in accordance with Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation 1049/2001, namely:

- the names initials and contact information of Commission staff members not pertaining to the senior management;
- the names initials and/or contact details of other natural persons;
- other information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person.

To this regard Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation 1049/2001 provides that ‘[t]he institutions shall refuse access to a document where disclosure would undermine the protection of: [...] privacy and the integrity of the individual, in particular in accordance with Community legislation regarding the protection of personal data’.

The applicable legislation in this field is Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725² (hereafter ‘Regulation 2018/1725’ or ‘Data Protection Regulation’).

Article 3(1) of Regulation 2018/1725 provides that personal data ‘means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person [...]’. The Court of Justice has specified that any information, which by reason of its content, purpose or effect, is linked to a particular person is to be considered as personal data.³ Please note in this respect that the names, signatures, functions, email addresses, telephone numbers etc., and/or initials pertaining to staff members of an institution are to be considered personal data⁴, as well as those of individuals belonging to third parties. As already indicated above, document 1 contains such personal information that needs to be redacted.

2.1.2. Question of ‘transfer’ of personal data and conclusion

Article 9(1)(b) of Regulation 2018/1725 does not allow the transmission of these personal data, except if you prove that it is necessary to have the data transmitted to you for a specific purpose in the public interest and where there is no reason to assume that the legitimate interests of the data subject might be prejudiced. In your request, you do not express any particular interest to have access to these personal data nor do you put forward any arguments to establish the necessity to have the data transmitted for a specific purpose in the public interest.

Consequently, I conclude that, pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation 1049/2001, access cannot be granted to the personal data, as the need to obtain access thereto for a purpose in the public interest has not been substantiated and there is no reason to think that the legitimate interests of the individuals concerned would not be prejudiced by disclosure of the personal data concerned.

2.2. Disclaimer(s)

You may reuse public documents, which have been produced by the European Commission or by public and private entities on its behalf, based on Commission Decision 2011/833/EU of 12 December 2011 on the re-use of Commission documents. You may reuse the documents disclosed free of charge for non-commercial and commercial purposes, provided that the source is acknowledged, and that you do not distort the original meaning or message of the documents. Please note that the Commission does not assume any liability stemming from the reuse.

Furthermore, please note that documents containing content of third party origin, i.e. either documents originating from third parties or documents containing parts of third party origin (in the present case document 1), are disclosed to you based on Regulation 1049/2001. However, disclosure of such contents or documents of third party origin is without prejudice to the rules on intellectual property, which may limit your right to reproduce or exploit the released documents without the agreement of the originator, who may hold an intellectual property right on them. The European Commission does not assume any responsibility from the reuse of those documents or parts of documents.

Document 2 (report of the meeting) was drawn up for internal use under the responsibility of the relevant service of the Directorate-General for Trade. It solely reflects the service’s interpretation of the interventions made and does not set out any official position of the third party to which the document refers, which was not consulted on its content. It does not necessarily reflect the position of the Commission and cannot be quoted as such.
