Subject: RE: Invitation to be our guest speaker for our next thematic breakfast

Dear [REDACTED],

On behalf of Diederik Samsom, I would like to thank you for and accept your kind invitation. Could you please give me an indication on what period you would like to schedule this breakfast? This will be easier to find a suitable date.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: Invitation to be our guest speaker for our next thematic breakfast

Dear M. Samsom,

I am writing you from NOVE, an independent public affairs and communication consultancy based in Brussels. We are proud to be celebrating our 10th anniversary this year, and to mark this important milestone we are launching an informal policy breakfast series aimed at gathering high-level EU policymakers and business/industrial stakeholders to exchange views on important EU initiatives addressing the energy, environmental and digital challenges of our time.

As we are approaching the end of the current legislature and start looking at the next cycle, it is probably a time for analysis and scenario planning NOVE is convinced that fostering open and frank discussions between EU policymakers and relevant stakeholder will lead to a promising future.

Against this background, we would be honoured if you would accept to be our next guest speaker during a forthcoming breakfast discussion held under the Chatham House Rule with selected industry stakeholders, at your best convenience in the coming months, at a time at your best convenience.

We usually organise our breakfasts from 8:30 to 9:30 in our offices, the Hotel Tassel (a 19th century UNESCO-classified Art Nouveau building designed by the Belgian architect Victor Horta), situated Rue Paul Emile Janson 6 (close to Avenue Louise, between Chatelain and Place Stéphanie). Our breakfasts usually start with an introduction from our guest speaker (10 minutes) of the topic of the day, followed by an open discussion with people in the room, which is moderated by one of our Partners or Directors.

We would be very happy to welcome you to discuss what EVP Timmermans achieved since the beginning of the current Commission's term. This discussion will also be the opportunity to discuss about the next priorities for the coming year and how European companies can support the EU efforts to ensure an efficient decarbonation.

Among the participants, you would notably be able to discuss with very diverse companies and organisation, such as Hydrogen Europe, Terna, Eni, Equinor, ABB, Total Energies, and many more.

I will liaise with your team in the coming days to assess your availability for such a breakfast. In case you would not be able due to your tight agenda, we would also be pleased to welcome someone from your team.

In the meantime, feel free to contact me should you have any questions about this invitation.

I thank you in advance for your consideration,

Respectfully,

[Redacted signature]

NOVE
