Dear Mr Martinez Navarro,

This is just to let you know that a copy of the letter from OLAF to [REDACTED] sent to him this morning has been forwarded to your Registry as requested in your e-mail of 7 June 2012.

I hope this letter will enable the matter to be closed in your office but please be assured that OLAF is ready to assist in any way it can be resolve any outstanding issue.

Yours sincerely,

Martin WASMEIER

Dear

The Ombudsman's Office has recently advised OLAF by e mail of your complaint that your letter to the late Director General, Mr. Bruener, dated 24 September 2009 has not been responded to by OLAF and that consequently the Ombudsman has decided to open an enquiry into your complaint.

My purpose in writing now is twofold. First, to apologise for failing to reply to your letter of 24 September 2009 and secondly, to respond to the specific request in your third paragraph, "I would be extremely interested to know on what basis you were able to reach your conclusions".

The matter having been drawn to OLAF's attention last week lead us to search for your letter. It was found in our archives. Due to a technical error in our filing and handling procedures at the time, your letter which was received on 2 October 2009 at OLAF was not transferred to those who had the conduct of the case. Consequently no one who would have been tasked to respond to your letter was aware of its existence. I would ask you to accept my assurance that this was an oversight on our part, not a deliberate decision to ignore it. In the circumstances, please accept our sincere apologies for this administrative error.

With regard to the specific request you make I wish to advise that it is not OLAF's policy to explain or give reasons for its decision to close an investigation. I would only add that all such decisions are taken after careful reflection and discussion between investigators and their management.

Yours sincerely, /

Mika MAKELA /
