Dear [REDACTED]

Any news on the draft? I think it is time to launch the LS consultation.

Dear [REDACTED],

Thanks. Although, we are under huge pressure to respect deadlines, in this case it is important to have a solid and coherent decision that puts an end to the discussions with the applicant. If he does not agree, he can use the means of redress.

Dear [REDACTED]

Sorry for not replying earlier, I was not in the office from last Wednesday until yesterday. I have read the draft and made some minor changes (concerning factual elements), but would like to receive the views of my colleagues from unit 01 before giving you a final reply. I will get back to you as soon as I have their comments.
Have a nice day,

Dear colleagues,

Have you already have a look to the draft? I need your OK before sending it to the LS for consultation.

Thanks in advance
