I regret to inform you that it has been decided to refuse access to the documents requested:

By way of further explanation in respect of both sections ‘A’ and ‘B’ above, disclosure of the requested documentation would undermine the actions taken by Eurojust and thus render more difficult the fulfillment of its mandate under Articles 6 and 7 of the Council Decision of 28 February 2002 setting up Eurojust with a view to reinforcing the fight against serious crime (2002/187/JHA) as last amended by Council Decision of 16 December 2008 (2009/426/JHA).

Please note that Article 7.4 of the Eurojust Decision to Adopt Rules Regarding Public Access to Eurojust Documents adopted on 13 July 2004 gives you the right to make a confirmatory application within 30 working days of receiving this reply to the Administrative Director asking Eurojust to reconsider its position.

Yours sincerely,
