Subject: RE: Invitation to be keynote speaker at ePURE's annual conference

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for this information – this is sufficient. I can send you the outline of what we have prepared for Mr Strohmeier on Monday. We are coordinating with the colleagues from Directorate E so there should not be duplication between the two speeches.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: Re: Invitation to be keynote speaker at ePURE's annual conference

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email.

Please find attached an updated programme and list of participants.

As you will see, the conference is very much attended by senior persons working in the bio-industries, particularly the bioethanol/biofuels industry, and other industries such as oil, farming, etc. The conference will be attended by approx 150 people, a large proportion of whom will be from ePURE member companies. In attendance will also be several European Commission and member state officials.

The conference itself is an annual policy conference that we organise for our members. It is a free to attend conference which is by invitation only. We typically invite persons from the various Brussels-based stakeholder groups that we work with throughout the year as well as various European policy makers.

As ePURE represents the European ethanol industry, by representing European ethanol producers at the EU-level, the conference programme is very much focused on the contemporary market and policy issues that are affecting the sector. Recently there has been much talk about the role of ethanol in the bioeconomy and we are interested to hear more from Mr Strohmeier on this point, particularly in terms of the strategic aspect of the bioeconomy.

As there is [REDACTED], a colleague of Mr Strohmeier, speaking on the following day, I would like to receive a outline of what issues Mr Strohmeier plans to discuss during his key note speech, so that I can brief [REDACTED] on these in order to avoid any repetition between the two speakers.

Could you please send me an outline of the topics on Monday? I do not need a copy of Mr Strohmeier's entire speech, an indication of the topics is sufficient.

Is this sufficient information? If you require any additional details then please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear Mr [REDACTED],

We are preparing a briefing for the participation of our Deputy Director General in the ePure conference. Would you have a document, which explains the aims of the conference? Could you also send us the updated programme and list of participants?

Thank you in advance,

Subject: RE: Invitation to be keynote speaker at ePURE's annual conference

Dear [REDACTED],

Further to our telephone conversation, I sincerely thank Mr. Strohmeier for agreeing to deliver the key note speech at our annual conference. We are very interested to hear more about his thoughts on the bioeconomy and the role of ethanol within that. Could you please send me the title of his proposed speech as soon as it is available? Attached you will find an attendance list (90+ registered so far), it is envisaged that no more than 150 people will be in attendance. I also attach an updated draft programme for your convenience. I have sent Mr Strohmeier an official invitation to register for the event (see registration details below). Could you please send me at your earliest convenience a photo and cv of Mr Strohmeier?
