Nous sommes:

Unit A1 is the responsible Unit for civil policy in the 'Civil justice' Directorate. Its mission is to develop and promote the establishment of a genuine European area of justice in civil and commercial matters which "people can approach courts and authorities in any Member State as easily as in their own". It represents the Union at international level for civil law issues. The Unit's activities are core in the 'justice for growth' policy and thus are essential to ensure that justice boosts confidence and growth in the EU.

particulier the Unit ensures that:

- Citizens and businesses exercise their rights without difficulties by the incompatibility of legal and judicial systems in Member States, thus facilitating an easy access to justice and creating a more friendly-business environment;
- Judicial decisions as well as other official documents are mutually recognized and circulate freely in the European Union;
- Member States implement the Union legislation in the civil policy field.

Nous proposons:

The main tasks of the Head of Unit include:

- ensuring strong motivation and leadership of a team of about 20 staff members, in a co-operative and dynamic but highly challenging working environment;
- providing strategic leadership in developing the Commission's policies in the field of civil and commercial matters as well as in the field of family law;
- being responsible for the establishment and delivery of the unit's work programme;
- managing the unit's human and budgetary resources;
- ensuring effective cooperation with other DG JUSTICE and Commission services;
- representing the Commission in formal negotiations and present the unit's policy to a wide range of high level audiences including Member States and third countries.

Nous recherchons:

We look for

- a lawyer with a strong legal background in Union law;
- a very good understanding of the economic impact of civil law on growth and the advantages it can bring to business and citizens;
- a sound political judgment;
- excellent negotiation skills and ability to represent the Commission in high level and international fora;
- excellent ability to co-ordinate and co-operate within the unit and with colleagues outside the unit;
- excellent setting of priorities, and ability to drive and motivate staff;
- managerial and inter-personal skills in order to lead a team;
- excellent oral and written communication skills in order to communicate efficiently and fluently with internal and external stakeholders.
