Subject: Freedom of Information request - Source code for European Data Portal --- Ref. Gestdem 2016/1030

Dear Mr Ross,

thank you for your interest in the European Data Portal, made available in its version 1.0 since 18 February 2016.

We are pleased to inform you that its computer source code has been made freely available on the GitHub platform since 3 March 2016 at the following URL: <https://gitlab.com/groups/european-data-portal> .

We will be grateful if you keep us informed, at your convenience, about your re-use of the portal software. Your feedback will greatly help us in better understanding users' needs and contribute to our activities on Open Data.

Sincerely yours,

Márta Nagy-Rothengass
