Dear Ms Knaebel,

Subject: Your application for access to documents – Ref GestDem No 2016/2898

We refer to your e-mail dated 24/05/2016 in which you make a request for access to documents, registered on 25/05/2016 under the above mentioned reference number.

You request access to "les documents contenant ces informations: toutes communications, y compris emails, minutes, listes de participants... concernant le rendez-vous entre Juho Romakkaniemi et SANOFI le 19/03/2015".

Your application concerns the following document: an exchange of emails between Mr Romakkaniemi and Mr Jouhki, Director, European Public Affairs, at Sanofi.

The document/documents to which you have requested access contains personal data.

Pursuant to Article 4(1) (b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, access to a document has to be refused if its disclosure would undermine the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual, in particular in accordance with Community legislation regarding the protection of personal data. The applicable legislation in this field is Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data¹.

When access is requested to documents containing personal data, Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 becomes fully applicable².

According to Article 8(b) of this Regulation, personal data shall only be transferred to recipients if they establish the necessity of having the data transferred to them and if there is no reason to assume that the legitimate rights of the persons concerned might be prejudiced.

We consider that, with the information available, the necessity of disclosing the aforementioned personal data to you has not been established and/or that it cannot be assumed that such disclosure would not prejudice the legitimate rights of the persons concerned. Therefore, we are disclosing the documents requested expunged from this personal data.

In case you would disagree with the assessment that the expunged data are personal data which can only be disclosed if such disclosure is legitimate under the rules of personal data protection, you are entitled, in accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation 1049/2001, to make a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position.
