Dear Mr. De Gucht:

It was a pleasure to meet you during the OECD Ministerial Council Meeting in Paris on May 24, 2012.

I was very pleased to note our continued shared commitment to a high level of ambition in the negotiations toward a Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA). I look forward to working with you to ensure a successful conclusion to the CETA negotiations. An ambitious CETA will strengthen our trade and investment relationship, and bring important new opportunities for growth to our economies.
