Good afternoon,

On behalf of Commissioner Malmström, thank you for your meeting request. Commissioner Malmström would be delighted to meet with you on February 7, 2017 at 12:00 p.m. Please let me know whether that would suit your agenda. Please kindly fill in the enclosed visitors' form (only the yellow fields) with the European date format, i.e. DD/MM/YYYY, and return it to me earliest possible. No parking access will be granted to your delegation. Thanks.

Kind regards,

Dear Mia and Christian,

Happy new year to you both!

I am writing because my U.S. Chamber colleagues Myron Brilliant (EVP and Head of International Affairs) and Marjorie Chorlins (VP of European Affairs) will be traveling to Brussels next month,

Monday-Tuesday February 6-7, and we are hoping that a meeting with Commission Malmström might be a possibility.

They will be visiting to discuss the prospects for U.S.-EU cooperation on trade and the new political realities as the new U.S. administration takes office.

We would be honored if the Commissioner might have time in her schedule to make this meeting a possibility.

Thanks very much for your consideration. For your reference, Myron and Marjorie's bios are attached.

Best regards,

Garrett
