This means "no-opinion vote" ([REDACTED]).

Chair closed the meeting announcing the invitation of a meeting of the Appeal Committee (according to the rules of procedure, as a general rules this can take place at the earliest in two weeks).

In terms of content, the draft measure voted today provided for an extension of the existing approval by 6 months after the opinion of the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) about the hazard classification of glyphosate, or 31.12.17, whatever is earlier. The ECHA opinion has to be delivered by 30/11/17, but is expected already for summer 2017.
