Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for this, our offices are indeed located at Avenue d'Auderghem 45; your colleagues should present themselves at reception on the day, and will be escorted to our meeting place.

Best Regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for the suggestions below. 23rd January in the morning would work best. Should we say 10.30 am at our offices? I will explore availability for meeting rooms.

Please note that for each attendee, I would need the following information for registration at reception ahead of time:

Full Name, Date of birth, Nationality, ID number

Thanks,

Best Regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

I am sorry to learn you are leaving your job, as we have worked so well together and we have all appreciated your skills and professional approach.
I hope we will have the opportunity to meet and cooperate again in the future.

At the same time, I would like to welcome [REDACTED] and tell [REDACTED] that we would be happy to meet in January and have an exchange on various items and in particular on ETS and energy costs/prices.

All the best to [REDACTED] and a Happy Holidays to both.

Dear colleagues,

I am writing to inform that I will leave my post as of end of next week.

I have hopes to come back to the Commission soon but where and when it is not yet clear.

Meanwhile, I would like to inform you that a new, highly valuable colleague has joined the climate and energy team in unit GROW [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in copy, will follow in particular the EU ETS and energy prices and costs files.

I would be grateful if you could inform colleagues in your association as needed, so that they are also aware.

I take the occasion to thank you for the fruitful cooperation so far and to wish you all a nice break and a Happy New Year.

Best regards,
