Dear [REDACTED]

thanks for your update. Attached is the progress report for discussion next Wednesday at 9 am. The progress report contains an overview of the work done including a detailed project planning. I also include the current version of the questionnaire for discussion. Finally, I include an overview of the literature which was compiled as one of the inputs on possible methodologies, instruments and control variables. The outcome of the overview is summarised in the interim report.

Look forward to the discussion on Wednesday!

Best regards,
