Hi [At 4.16]

The Business-Government Dialogue is supposed to be an open conversation between the gov't and business participants. Mr Thumann, EU TABD Co-Chair will briefly introduce the gov't guests and then ask for fairly short introductory remarks (as opposed to long presentations). Mr Thumann will then open the discussion for interventions from TABD Members. At this point we think the following interventions from members may come up:

- Regulatory cooperation in financial services, auditing/accounting
- Cloud computing
- IPR
- Multilateral dimension & implications vis-à-vis third countries
- Raw materials/recycling

Please note that Angel Gurría, the Sec-Gen of the OECD is likely to join the conversation at around 15:15 for the last 15 min.

Please let me know if you have further questions.

Regards,
Hendrike

We are currently working on the briefings for this meeting and we would like to understand as soon as possible the "choreography" of interventions as you are planning them. How much time allowed for the speakers? What is the order of intervention, FAQs time, etc? and anything else that could help us prepare Mr Demarty and Mr Vanheukelen.

Thank you so much in advance,

Regards,

Importance: High

Dear Judit and Mariana,

We have learned that Mike Froman has a conflicting meeting from 16:00 – 17:00 on January 25 and were hoping to change the timing for our TABD business-government dialogue to 14:30 – 15:30, but wanted to ensure that M. Demarty and M. Vanheukelen would be able to come at the earlier time.

Many thanks for your response.

Dear Hendrike,

As discussed over the phone, provided that you will be able to arrange for his accreditation to the WEF, I am pleased to confirm that Mr Demarty will be available to attend your event in Davos on 25 January at 16h.

I suggest that you follow up with [Ant 4.16] and [Ant 4.16] copied to this email as regards practical arrangements.

Best wishes for the holiday period,

[Ant 4.16]

Dear [Ant 4.16]

It was very nice to meet you at the AmCham lunch event on Tuesday. And it was good timing to exchange our coordinates, I already have a quick question for you: We are wondering if DG Demarty is planning to attend the WEF 2013.

If so we would plan to extend an invitation to our TABD CEO Meeting which will take place in the margins of the WEF in Davos on Friday, January 25. We understand that Commissioner De Gucht will be in Latin America during that time, hence we were hoping to have the DG Demarty participate to update our CEOs on the status of the EU-US High Level Working Group.

It would be very helpful if you could let us know if the DG will be in Davos so that we can send an official invitation.

Many thanks,
Hendrike
