Dear [REDACTED]

We suggest a meeting with [REDACTED] on Tuesday 5 December at around 14h30 here in the Berlaymont building.

Would it be convenient for you?

Regards

Thank you [redacted]. Ken has a meeting with [redacted] at 4pm. Would it be possible for him to meet [redacted] immediately before that (or for [redacted] to join the meeting with [redacted] if easier)?

Kind regards

Dear [redacted]

Unfortunately, the senior management is not available for a meeting on 5 or 6 December.

However, [redacted] is happy to meet Mr Bentsen instead, if that is convenient to you.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

You very kindly participated in the meeting our delegation had with DG FISMA in early October – thank you. I am reaching out now because SIFMA's President and CEO, Ken Bentsen, will be in Brussels on Tuesday 5th December and would welcome the opportunity to catch up with either Mr. Barnier or another senior member of the Taskforce. Please let me know if this possible. Wednesday 6th December may also be a possibility if the 5th is problematic

Kind regards
