Dear [REDACTED],

Wonderful!

10am is actually the only slot that is taken currently, so if you have any other than that might be easier for us – but if not, then I'll certainly be able to move things around.

Many thanks indeed.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

It will not surprise you that Lloyd's of London, Europe's biggest insurance market, takes a keen interest in the Brexit developments and you may well have noted its decision to open a Brussels presence some months ago. Going back years, Lloyd's has engaged on the issue, including with DG FISMA and it was amongst the first companies to take a stance publically. With a large part of its premiums written in the US, we have also worked on third country issues such as equivalence under Solvency II for a long time, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] will be in Brussels on 19 September. [REDACTED] be joined by [REDACTED], who is [REDACTED], and who also has responsibility for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would of course be keen to meet with you, to discuss the latest on insurance in a Brexit context.

Would you be willing and have time to meet with us that day? We're still flexible in terms of slots.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Vriendelijke groet,

[REDACTED]
