[REDACTED] has taken up this role within Facebook in January, having spent several years representing the company as [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

He would be delighted to meet you for a discussion on EU level activities and policy concerning the development of robotic technologies, and how these fit in within the Digital Single Market work streams. He would also like the opportunity to share with you Facebook's own experiences and input in this area.

Would you have some availability for a meeting in the coming weeks?

Kind Regards,
