Dear [REDACTED],

I am sending you attached the documents we discussed today:

- Seating plan
- [REDACTED]'s run of show describing what is happening during the day
- The recommendations of the young self-advocates for the first session
- Young people's profiles.

In the meeting with the Commissioner one of them will ask him the following question:

Have you ever put yourself in the shoes of children and young people in institutions?

Another self-advocate will make a brief statement with main message that the EU should stop funding institutions.

A third self-advocate will ask JKR the following questions:
Is having such a level of influence is a blessing or a curse?
What is your dream for children around the world? Do you think that the situation of children in institutions has improved?

The self-advocates came up with these questions and messages.

Finally, the Ambassador of Rwanda is going to speak instead of Rwandan speaker who couldn't make it.

I hope you have some rest tonight.
