

BTO Carl-Christian Buhr meeting with [redacted]
[redacted] Qualcomm
Brussels, 20 March 2017

Participants

personal
data

Qualcomm : [redacted]
[redacted]
Commission: Carl-Christian Buhr (CCB), Deputy Head of Cab. Maria Gabriel
[redacted] DG CNECT/E1 (note taker)

Summary of discussions

1. 5G

According to [redacted], Qualcomm is very committed to the European 5G agenda, [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

personal data commercial interests

[redacted]
[redacted]

commercial interests

[redacted] [redacted] [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

2. Connected Cars

Qualcomm has been supporting both G5 and CV2x. But in terms of evolution G5 is more limited.

According to [redacted], car makers are not happy about the double G5 and 5G options, because they don't want to have to pay for 2 radio systems at the same time.

personal
data

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

commercial interests

At international level, in the US, China and Korea there is a clear path towards 5G.

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

commercial interests

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

commercial interests

Conclusions

The meeting's participants thank each other for this very interesting exchange of views.

CCB invites [REDACTED] to meet again after the summer.

personal data

In the meantime, CCB suggests that [REDACTED] meets with Alina Ujupan from the Cabinet Gabriel.

CCB also suggest contacts with Silke Obst in Cab Bulc.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

personal data