EU-Indonesia Trade & Investment Relations: Vitalizing the Economic Partnership

For the occasion of the Belasia Festival and Fair, the European Institute for Asian studies is honoured to welcome H.E. Ambassador Mr Arif Havas Oegroseno. The EU and Indonesia signed a Partnership Cooperation Agreement in 2009. The EU is Indonesia's fourth largest trading partner, representing more than 10 percent of its total external trade. Intense contacts have taken place since 2011 to explore the possibility to further deepen EU-Indonesia relations and negotiate a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement.

The EU is rediscovering a new Indonesia, with its large potential in terms of size, expected growth rates, emerging services and economic integration in the Asian region. From an Indonesian perspective Europe is the second largest export market and largest investor. This seminar will provide ideas, views and interpretations on EU-Indonesia trade and investment relations, and identify on what basis EU-Indonesia trade and investment can be best enhanced in an innovative way.
