

[REDACTED]

From:
Sent:
To:
Subject:

[REDACTED]
HUSTINX Peter
Request of meeting [REDACTED] AT&T [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] 27-29 March

Dear Mr. Hustinx,
I hope this mail finds you well. I am contacting you to enquire with you the possibility of setting up a meeting between you and Mr. [REDACTED], [REDACTED] at AT&T during the week of 27-29 March. [REDACTED] will be in Brussels for the [REDACTED] event on [REDACTED] and would be grateful to have the opportunity of having an exchange of views with you on data privacy.

[REDACTED] is responsible for [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] participates in [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. In addition, he represents AT&T in [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. He also has been actively engaged in [REDACTED]

Would a meeting be of interest to you, [REDACTED] could be available on 27 March in the morning, 28 and 29 of March at your best convenience.

I would be grateful if you could let me know whether you could be interest and available for a meeting and eventually indicate to me a day and timeslot that would be suitable to you.

Would you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact me

Kind Regards,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
AT&T- 25, Rue d'Arlon – B-1050 Brussels
Tel: +32 [REDACTED]
GSM:+32 [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]