Objet: UDHR and Declaration on Human Dignity

Dear Jean-Claude,

Today is a special International Human Rights Day. We commemorate 70th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration on Human Rights. In order to remind and to credibly recommit to this important objective of our international cooperation and policy I was working with the group of experts and academics on declaration to support foundational principle of this document, i.e. human dignity. You may find the Declaration on Human Dignity for Everyone Everywhere in the attached link. There are experts, international representatives and professors from all over the world signing this Declaration.

I am ready to discuss and promote this principle for sustainable human development and for promotion of human rights culture throughout the UDHR jubileum year.

Thank you for your continuous support. As you recently (in Helsinki) proposed our meeting in Brussels, I am ready to adapt my schedule and to arrive to see you on December 17 - 19, when this is convenient for you.
With kind regards,
