Dear !

Thank you for your email. We would indeed be interested to meet and Ms on 26 April to hear their views on the Action Plan. I would be joined by and by r (in cc). In terms of timing, would 14:30 be suitable? Otherwise, it can be a little later as we are available until 16:30.

Thanks in advance and best regards,

Dear [redacted]

[redacted], the Global Head of Government and Regulatory Affairs, and [redacted], the Global Head of ESG Proposition at Thomson Reuters, will be in Brussels on 26th of April and would be grateful to meet with you in light of planned initiatives on a sustainable taxonomy, disclosure and green bonds.

As you may know, Thomson Reuters is one of the biggest providers of data and analytics in the field of financial services, and has been processing disclosure on sustainability information for more than a decade.

[redacted] would particularly appreciate the possibility to exchange views on practical considerations for developing a consistent taxonomy, and how their insights on the processing and use of ESG data could be of help to EU policy makers in the design of effective policy tools.

We very much hope that your diary might allow for a meeting on the above suggested date.

Kind regards,

FleishmanHillard | Square de Meeûs 35 | 1000 Brussels | Belgium
