Apologies, a few more queries please on rereading your helpful answer.

[REDACTED]

Please would you kindly provide me with:

1. the complete list of topics, and
2. a copy of any guidance provided to SAs on how to choose the topics, including how SAs who are data protection law (but not consumer law) experts would be able to determine that a case involves consumer law rights (as opposed to data protection law rights) - or confirmation that no such guidance exists, and
3. if no such guidance exists, confirm please whether the EDPB plans to produce any such guidance to promote consistency?, and
4. regarding the IT system for SAs to exchange information, for each of the fields where SAs who input information are enabled to choose from one or more items from a given list (like the list of topics), including the list of possible origins, please provide me with a complete list of the possible items for each of these fields. (No need to provide this for free form text fields, of course).

Thank you very much for your continued assistance.

Kind regards
