Subject: CORRECTION: Gas for Climate: meeting with Diederik on 27 or 28 January?

Dear [REDACTED],
I am sorry; I overlooked a potential appointment in Spain on Wednesday!
So in summary:
Diederik asked me to brief him on a Green Deal initiative we're working on with the Gas for Climate group, preferably in the week of 27 January.
I would like to take my colleague [REDACTED], who manages the work with Gas for Climate, along for that meeting. For us the options would be:
Monday 27 January, all day, except between 13:40 and 15:20.
Tuesday 28 January, all day
If there would be any flexibility within these time slots, we'd have a preference for Monday (any time except 13:40-15:20).

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],
I am so sorry, the appointment somehow vanished from my Outlook Calendar, on which I rely a lot. Thanks to your reminder, and Diederik's flexibility, we fortunately were still able to have our conversation!

Subject: Gas for Climate: call on Wednesday?

Diederik,

Following up on our conversation in Brussels last year: there is good progress on our Gas for Climate Pathways report, including suggested contributions to the EU Green Deal, and we'll be discussing a draft with Brussels stakeholders in the course of February. I'd like to catch up with you on this, and a potential meeting (+ launch event?) between the CEOs of the Gas for Climate members and Frans Timmermans (in April). Your office already informed me that there might be an opportunity on Wednesday. What time would work best for you? For me, it would be best between 08:00 and 14:30, or else after 18:00.

Thanks, and looking forward to catch up!
