Subject: Your application for access to documents – GESTDEM 2020/2336

Dear Sir,

We refer to your e-mail of 17/04/2020 in which you make a request for access to documents, registered on 20/04/2020 under the above-mentioned reference number.

You request access to: “Documents which contain the following information: I’m looking for the actors and their opinions that participated in the conference on the public debate “The CAP post 2013”, that took place on 19-20 July 2010. This conference was held around the upcoming CAP reform beyond 2013.”

We identified 34 documents, of which 31 were attached in our first letter of 10/06/2020.

For the other three documents No 22, 27 and 28 that originate from National authorities and third parties, we have made consultations and received positive replies. You can find a copy of them in this letter.

With regard to the attached documents, a complete disclosure of them is prevented by the exception concerning the protection of privacy and the integrity of the individual outlined in Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, because they contain the following personal data:

- the names/initials and contact information of Commission staff members not pertaining to the senior management;
- the names/initials and contact details of other natural persons;
- handwritten signatures/abbreviated signatures of natural persons;

Article 9(1)(b) of the Data Protection Regulation does not allow the transmission of these personal data, except if you prove that it is necessary to have the data transmitted to you for a specific purpose in the public interest and where there is no reason to assume that the legitimate interests of the data subject might be prejudiced. In your request, you do not express any particular interest to have access to these personal data nor do you put forward any arguments to establish the necessity to have the data transmitted for a specific purpose in the public interest.

Consequently, I conclude that, pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, access cannot be granted to the personal data contained in the requested documents, as the need to obtain access thereto for a purpose in the public interest has not been substantiated and there is no reason to think that the legitimate interests of the individuals concerned would not be prejudiced by disclosure of the personal data concerned.

These documents originate from National Authorities and third parties and are disclosed to you based on Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001. However, this disclosure is without prejudice to the rules on intellectual property, which may limit your right to reproduce or exploit the released documents without the agreement of the originator, who may hold an intellectual property right on them. The European Commission does not assume any responsibility from their reuse.

In case you would disagree with this position, you are entitled, in accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, to submit a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position.

Such a confirmatory application should be addressed within 15 working days upon receipt of this letter to the Secretariat-General of the Commission at the following address:
