Dear Ms

In the light of the current situation concerning the coronavirus, it is very difficult to make any commitments at this stage. I would suggest to have a WebEx meeting on the proposed slot of 20 May from 14:30-15:15.

If you accept, please send me the email addresses to whom I should send the meeting invitation and the most important and urgent the topics your delegation would like to discuss.

Many thanks,
Simona Kotsaridis

Dear Ms

Further to our phone conversation, I could propose a new slot on 20 May from 14:30-15:15. Would that suit you?

Kind regards,
Simona

Dear Mr Hall,

On behalf of Commissioner Sinkevičius, I would like to thank you for the congratulatory letter and interest shown to organise a meeting.

I would like to propose you a slot on 2 April from 14:30-15:15 for a meeting with Commissioner Sinkevičius.

The meeting will take place in the Berlaymont building of the European Commission.

- Could you communicate us the topics you would like to discuss, please.
- Please send us a list with the official titles/positions held by the members of your delegation who are attending the meeting.

We would need the following information, please, so that we can then take care of the practicalities:

1- Could you please confirm whether you, or your organisation, are registered in the Transparency Register and provide your Register ID number ? Please note that all participants need to register their entity/firm in the Transparency register. If you are not registered, you are kindly invited to register on this website . The meeting can only take place once we have received the confirmation of your registration. Please be aware that the European Commission is committed to enhanced transparency. Therefore, Commissioners and their Cabinets only meet organisations or self-employed individuals that are registered in the EU's Transparency Register".

2- Please let us know the following information of participants in order to ask for an e-pass:

First name, family name, nationality, date of birth (DD/MM/YYYY), ID number, ID validity date (DD/MM/YYYY).

Kind regards,

SIMONA KOTSARIDIS
