2. DOCUMENTS FALLING WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THE REQUESTS AND ASSESSMENT UNDER REGULATION 1049/2001

Your requests concern contacts with a particular representative of Netflix. Disclosure of any information related to this natural person would entail a transmission of personal data falling under the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (the 'Data Protection Regulation')¹. We therefore regret to inform you that we are not in a position to specify any documents that fall within the scope of these requests and give access to them, as such disclosure is prevented by the exception concerning the protection of privacy and integrity of the individual outlined in Article 4(1)(b) of Regulation 1049/2001.

Article 9(1)(b) of the Data Protection Regulation does not allow the transmission of these personal data, except if you prove that it is necessary to have the data transmitted to you for a specific purpose in the public interest and where there is no reason to assume that the legitimate interests of the data subject might be prejudiced. In your request, you do not put forward any arguments to establish the necessity to have the data transmitted for a specific purpose in the public interest.

Consequently, I conclude that, pursuant to Article 4(1)(b) Regulation 1049/2001, no information about the relevant documents and no access can be granted as the need to obtain access thereto for a purpose in the public interest has not been substantiated and there is no reason to think that the legitimate interests of the individuals concerned would not be prejudiced by disclosure of these documents.

Please note that in case you are interested in documents related to contacts and meetings of the Commissioner and his Cabinet or of DG CONNECT with this company in general and not with a particular representative, you may submit an access to documents request and we will again examine it according to the provisions of Regulation 1049/2001.
