Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your swift reply.

As the period is very intense until the end of this year, we would suggest to set up a videoconference with Ms Chirico beginning of next year.

Would one of the following date suit your agenda:

- Monday 11th January pm
- Tuesday 12th January pm

Waiting for your confirmation and preferred slot.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

thank you very much for your mail.

The meeting would be with Ms Chirico. But we would propose to hold such a meeting after the Roundtable with the Commissioner that is scheduled for 2 December I believe.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Best

Dear Ms. Chirico,

My colleagues and I support trivago, the leading search platform for hotels and accommodations headquartered in Duesseldorf (Germany). We would like to kindly ask you for the opportunity for a personal exchange with [REDACTED] trivago.

At present, trivago is intensively focusing on questions of (digital) competition law both on a German and European level. We expressly welcome the current efforts of the European Commission in this regard. The DSA / DMA will be important steps to counteract critical market concentration in digital markets and is therefore of great importance to ensure fair competition in the digital arena.

Against this background, [REDACTED] is very happy to be able to participate in the virtual roundtable with Commissioner Breton on this topic at the beginning of December. He would like to ask you for the opportunity to discuss the referred topics after this roundtable in a bilateral (virtual) meeting in more detail, and would be very happy if an exchange would also be in your own interest.

We are looking forward to your reply. If you have any questions, please let us know.

Kind regards,

T: [REDACTED]
