Dear Mr. Haar,

Subject: Your application for access to documents – GESTDEM 2021/2711

We refer to your e-mail of 26 April 2021, registered on the same day under the above mentioned reference number in which you request access to:

- “a list of meetings between the President of the Commission Ursula von der Leyen and her Cabinet and representatives of Global Citizen and/or the Pandemic Action Network since 1 March 2020, and the minutes of the meetings.”
- “all communication, including emails, between the President of the Commission Ursula von der Leyen and her Cabinet and representatives of Global Citizen and/or the Pandemic Action Network since 1 March 2020.”

We enclose a copy of the documents requested: personal data has been redacted (see below).

These documents were drawn up for internal use under the responsibility of the relevant members of the Cabinet of the President of the European Commission. They reflect solely the author's interpretation of the interventions made and does not set out any official position of the third parties to which the document refers, which was not consulted on its content. The content does not reflect the position of the Commission and cannot be quoted as such.

The documents contain personal data which has been redacted. Article 9(1)(b) of the Data Protection Regulation does not allow the transmission of these personal data, except if you prove that it is necessary to have the data transmitted to you for a specific purpose in the public interest and where there is no reason to assume that the legitimate interests of the data subject might be prejudiced. In your request, you do not express any particular interest to have access to these personal data nor do you put forward any arguments to establish the necessity to have the data transmitted for a specific purpose in the public interest.

In accordance with Article 7(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, you are entitled to make a confirmatory application requesting the Commission to review this position.

Such a confirmatory application should be addressed within 15 working days upon receipt of this letter to the Secretariat-General of the Commission at the following address:

European Commission
Secretariat-General
Unit C.1. 'Transparency, Document Management and Access to Documents'
